

NIKOS FINTIKAKIS INTRODUCTION

My dear friends and colleagues of the great and proud R2.

It is a great honor to welcome you again after 2018 under the sun of the cradle of Democracy, the Acropolis of Athens

However, I am very sorry that I can not offer you neither the atmosphere of a Plato symposium neither the taste of a Bacchus Greek wine, but I hope that very soon you will taste it in live ,shaking our hands again during peripatetic dialogues around Acropolis

This meeting of the Presidents of R 2 is an initiative of the UIA Greek Section and its President Professor Fani Vavili .

This is also the first virtual large and massive event before the Congress of Rio in July 2021 and is hosted by the Presidents of the two largest Organizations of Architects and Engineers of Greece George Stasinou President of TCG and Konstantinos Makedos President of TMEDE who also kindly offered to the Greek Section of UIA the organization of this online event. Please take note that R 2 next on line event will held again the Wednesday 12 th of May almost two months before the scheduled Congress

It is important to be noted that

In our today event are also participating the Vice Presidents of all UIA Regions ,the Présidents of the Regional Organizations and distinguished colleagues Past Presidents of UIA. Allow me not to mention names in order not to omit any of those present as well as those who for technical reasons will connect later

Nikos Fintikakis

UIA Vice Président R II
